Financial literacy introduces the youngsters to the concept of savings and life planning.

EDUCATION SPONSORSHIPS

Jannah and Windari are part of the first Borneo Football all girls team. They are now assistant coaches and attend the Hospitality and Tourism course at YUM.

At the age of 15, Rahmad started playing football with the BFIA, not only learning a healthy sport, but also understanding life's values, discipline and camaraderie. At the age of 20 showing his value, he was sponsored by Borneo Football to take Hospitality and Tourism program course at YUM, and he is now working his internship with Borneo Escape, another Subud venture in Kalimantan.

BUS FUNDRAISING

Funding has been prioritised towards the indoor and the programs. At the moment fundraising for the bus is still far from target.
