DEAR FRIENDS AND SUPPORTERS:

Your donations enabled Susila Dharma USA to help people around the world, impacting countless lives, and funding over 20 humanitarian projects in 2025, transforming communities around the world: helping children, improving access to food, and building communities. For instance: SD USA grants helped farmers in Kalimantan develop strategies to cope with climate change, helped raise awareness about gender-based violence in South Africa, provided much-needed afterschool enrichment programs to children in Colombia, helped provide school supplies and christmas gifts for needy children in Tijuana, and so much more.

Also in 2025, our board approved to fund A Child's Garden of Peace their new project in Colombia and funded one Melinda Wallis Memorial Grant to provide hay for horses at the spirit sanctuary which is healing both horses and humans.

Our SD USA board met in person in February for board development and grant distribution and discussed how to distribute funds when a number of projects requested additional grants from the prior year (more than our budget). There was an amazing outpouring of direct support from board members and additional funds were raised in the distribution meeting. Additionally, we say goodbye to Oswald Norton who did tremendous work on SD USA over the years and continues to help raise awareness in Seattle as an ex board member.

This coming year we need your help to grow our endowment fund, so that we can meet the growing needs of our projects, and also add additional projects. We are seeking volunteers to help raise awareness within your local group, and consider sponsoring a project as a group. If you have an idea for a humanitarian project, no matter how small, come talk with us, and consider applying for a Melinda Wallis Memorial Fund grant to get started. This work could not happen without you. Thank you!

With gratitude,

Andrew Clark, Chairman
and the Board of Directors of Susila Dharma USA
